

FRAGMENTS OF THE FOREST

An outdoor ceramic installation exploring the impacts of climate change on native trees.

07.25.26

Solo exhibition by Angela Ruggles

FRAGMENTS OF THE FOREST

Solo exhibition by Angela Ruggles

Take a moment to imagine a future without trees. Each ceramic vessel in this outdoor installation celebrates the beauty of native trees and serves as a stark warning of what we stand to lose to climate change.

07.25.26

Hoyt Arboretum
Steven's Pavilion
9:30a-12:30p

This exhibition is a partnership with Hoyt Arboretum Friends and will be held at Family Forest Day. It is funded in part by the Regional Arts & Culture Council and the Office of Arts & Culture.

Hoyt Arboretum Friends

 Regional Arts &
Culture Council
P(ARTS & CULTURE)RTLAND